6  FAIL SAFE: Strategic Nuclear Warfare in the Cold War
From 1945 through the early 1960s, manned bombers carrying nuclear weapons ruled the skies. This is the story of the development of the doctrine that directed, and restricted, their use. by Joseph Miranda

22  Rise of Saladin
Saladin is known to history as a great and chivalrous warrior, but the story of his rise to power, told here, shows a character capable of ruthless acts when needed. by John Walker

34  Battle of Bushy Run, 1763
The decisive battle of Pontiac’s War was won by excellent leadership and careful combination of line and light infantry tactics to overwhelm the Indians besieging Fort Pitt. by John Pezzola

44  Tulagi
The August 1942 US landing on Guadalcanal was covered by subsidiary landings to the north on Tulagi and two other small islands. These northern invasions secured a vital logistics base to support the epic struggle for Guadalcanal. by Arnold Blumberg
