24 Desert Storm G2

Marine Corps Intelligence Operations in the Gulf War

The US Marine Corps intelligence service was neither large enough nor prepared to support the Coalition liberation of Kuwait from Saddam Hussein’s Iraqi army, but still provided effective support for the Marine divisions.

by Verne LeBl

34 Third System Forts in the American Civil War

America’s brick-and-stone Third System forts, Fort Sumter among them, were nearing obsolescence in 1862 but played a key role in several of the war’s campaigns.
