Features

6
Great Northern War
Charles XII versus Peter the Great
In 1700, Sweden dominated the Baltic Sea. Within two decades, Swedish power would wane and Russia would join the ranks of Europe’s great powers.
By Joseph Miranda

24
On Design
by Joseph Miranda

26
The Battle of Tours
Islam Halted, 732
Within a century after the death of Muhammad, Islam had spread to the gates of Western Europe. The fate of Christendom would hang in the balance in 732, with the clash of Frankish and Muslim forces in the Battle of Tours.
By Patrick S. Baker

36
Poland Restored
The Battle of the Niemen, 1920
In 1920, Polish and Soviet forces would clash in the aftermath of World War I. The Battle of the Niemen would be an important turning point in the war, preserving Polish independence.
By Maciej Jonasz

46
The Nez Perce War 1877
In the summer of 1877 the Nez Perce would embark on an epic 1,500-mile trek across Idaho and Montana while combating US forces in the Nez Perce War.
By Jon Cecil

Departments

24 On Design
by Joseph Miranda

58 Work in Progress
The American Revolution in the South

60 Did You Know?

62 For Your Information
  - Polish Bombers of the 1930s
    By Maciej Jonasz
  - Military Science in the Age of Charles XII & Peter the Great
    By Joseph Miranda
  - Lethal Relics: European Bows on the Southwestern Frontier
    By Wayne R. Austerman
  - Soviet Navy’s 100mm Anti-Aircraft Gun
    By Carl O. Schuster

78 The Long Tradition

Game Edition Rules
Great Northern War
by Joseph Miranda

Next Issue (#303)
On Sale January 2017
- War Returns to Europe, Yugoslavia 1991
- Battle of Culloden
- Julian the Apostate
- Battle of Fort Stevens, 1864