Constantinople
Bulwark of Empire 641-718
Constantinople provided the Eastern Roman—Byzantine—Empire with an almost invincible core. Two great sieges by Islam during the first century of its expansion demonstrated that power.
By Joseph Miranda

22
Armored Operations in Korea 1950-53
Armor played a pivotal role in every part of the Korean War despite terrain poorly suited to mechanized operations.
By William E. Hiestand

38
Imperial Eclipse
The Thirty Years’ War
The Thirty Years War is a term of convenience for a long period of religious and political strife that would shape the future of Europe.
By Christopher Panello & Steven M. Johnson

54
The Judean War of Independence
Judea fell under the control of the Seleucids after the breakup of Alexander’s Hellenic empire. An attempt to suppress Jewish rites in 175 BC sparked a rebellion that would evolve into a war of independence.
