6 Mediterranean Empires: Struggle for the Mediterranean in the High Middle Ages

By Javier Romero

22 Battle of Coleto Creek: 19–20 March 1836

The campaign to relieve the Alamo culminated with the Battle of Coleto Creek and the massacre of most of the survivors at near Goliad, as had occurred at the Alamo. This resulted in the Texan battle-cry, “Remember the Alamo, remember Goliad.”

By John Pezzola

32 Chosin: The Marines’ Inspiring Leadership

Following their success in the Pacific War, the Marines would prove their effectiveness again during the next conflict, delivering outstanding Korean War performances. Under the leadership of inspiring officers like Oliver P. Smith and Chesty Puller, the Marines in Korea added another chapter to their glorious history.
